

Our Warranty

Conery Manufacturing provides a three-year warranty on our floats. We warrant to the original consumer that the product shall be free from manufacturing defects for three years after the date of manufacture. During that time period we will repair or replace any component that proves to be defective. The full conditions of our warranty are printed on the last page of our catalog.